

Lead with Humanity

Virtual Connections

Do you live your life as a human doing, driven by the external demands of your world? Or do you live your life as a human being, with authenticity, humility and conviction?

Connecting to personal purpose is at the core of effective leadership.

Delegates are taken on a journey of self-discovery of the leader they choose to be. Working to unlock and rediscover your personal purpose, you will build the tools to courageously navigate this new world.

This virtual summit makes use of intensely facilitated online modules, offline personal exercises, breakout team sessions and a diverse selection of thought-provoking engagements.

Curated to address your requirements.

Guided by seven fundamental leadership ideas:

- Leadership is a state of being, not of doing
- It is about having influence – not control
- Leaders are connected to context
- Followers change things, leaders don't
- Leadership is a choice – not a birthright
- Leaders are multi-dimensional, and come in different and multiple forms
- Leadership about giving, not taking
