

Being a Leader

Individual Leadership Development and Team Coaching

Do you live your life as a human doing, driven by the external demands of your world? Or do you live your life as a human being, with authenticity, humility and conviction?

In this virtual program, delegates are taken on a journey of self-discovery of the leader they choose to be. Working independently and as a team, you will build the tools to courageously lead in this new world.

This virtual summit makes use of intensely facilitated online modules, offline personal exercises, breakout team sessions, individual and team coaching and a diverse selection of thought-provoking engagements.

Curated to address your requirements.

Guided by seven fundamental leadership themes:

- Leadership is a state of being, not of doing
- Leaders are connected to context
- It is about having influence – not control
- Followers change things, leaders don't
- Leadership about giving, not taking
- Leaders are multi-dimensional, and come in different and multiple forms
- Leadership is a choice – not a birthright
